2.0 The Minutes of the meeting held on Wednesday 22nd of March

2.1 Amendments required:

2.2 DO proposed as correct and DRB Second

The meeting was attended by Gwilym Thomas, member of the Board of Conservators (BoC). Gwilym gave an over view of the role of committee and history or the land in the surrounding area. Gwilym informed the committee that grazing leaves the common for 6 April onwards; Gorse is not cut to preserve it; Sand theft fine has increased from £20 to £500. He also noted that the signs on the common have been vandalised and Caravans are parking illegally overnight, RD to enquire if signs could be replaced and if fines can be increased to deter the illegal parking. The committee members asked if the 'Common Act 1876 (Towyn Trawen Common, Anglesey)' could be displayed on the community facebook page. Gwylim would welcome and recommend that when the time comes for him to retire, that he would recommend that DO take his place on the BoC committee. The committee gave thanks to Gwilym for his service to the community.

3.0 Matters Arising:

3.1 Concern regarding the 2 salaried staff, toilet cleaner and Clerk, what are the implications of changing arrangements for this staff - DB to get a copy of a standard contract. This matter will be looked into in more detail in the next meeting

3.2 Clock –The Chair informed the committee that he had been to see the works that carried out. He noted that they did not use a hoist that they had included in their quotation and had only use scaffold. Clerk to email clock menders negotiate on the costs.

4.0 Letters:

- 4.1 Wall rebuild on Glan Y Mor Road – The owner of the property which is situated at the bottom of Beach Road in Rhosnegir wishes to carry out repairs / rebuild to the wall which is retaining their garden. In order to carry out the work safely, the steps going down from the concrete picnic area to the beach will have to be closed off. The Members agreed that granting closure off season in Nov, Dec, Jan and a time constraint be given to ensure that the area is reopened a few weeks before Easter next year. RD to contact owner.
- 4.2 Liaison Forum moved to Thursday 8th June, if on this day Clerk will not be able to attend as clashes with General Election. This is expected to move to alternative date.

5.0 Planning Applications:

- 5.1 28C541/ENF – Application for retention of a balcony at Glyn Garth, 10 Beach road, Rhosneigr - Install screening up around balcony to allow adjoining property's to have some privacy
